

Fifth Annual Village Trailer Rally to Start Today

Her Probation Plea Fails

"Don't take my picture," says Michael Elizabeth Miers, following her hearing on probation before Superior Court Judge Hilton McCabe. She denied her probation and sentenced her to the state prison for women at Corona. Though she stood alone in court, yesterday, she broke into tears only momentarily when she heard the sentence, then refused to have her picture taken. Her husband, Robert Miers, had preceded her to prison by two weeks, and yesterday was the first time they were separated at any court proceedings since they were captured at Kingman, Arizona, within two days after they killed and robbed City Building Inspector Donald "Dutch" Graham on August 26. She sat quietly in court and stood only to hear Judge McCabe pronounce sentence. Mrs. Miers' sentence, as set by the Adult Authority, will be from 1 to 10 years. Her husband, who is in Chino State Prison, has the same conviction plus a five year to life for murder in the second degree. It is understood that the probation authorities have recommended the maximum sentence for each.

SAN BERNARDINO

Brick Row. I stopped at a door. There are many like it in the three rows of little brick stalls back of China town across from the casket factory. The doors are close together and all alike even to the worn thresholds; it's third from the end, on it you can trace the faded name of Denver Kate done in blue, light blue, with pink rose buds in the corners, and well done. PERHAPS SOME TRAMP ARTIST HAD TRADED WARES WITH KATE—

Days later I was struck by a sense of familiarity as I glanced at some pink rose buds on a pale blue ground. Could it be, I stopped in front of (The Rose Bud Cleaners) two blue delivery trucks at the curb were loading. A tall lad called "Mother Kate, is that the load?"

POSSIBLY THE LARGEST free trailer show in the country is open to the public during all the Rally days. Here, some 80 of the newest models of vacation and residence types of trailers are on display, ranging in size from 12 foot models to 50 foot deluxe residences with two bedrooms and two baths.

Trailer accessories such as canabans, ramadas, trailer hitches, storage cabinets, carved wooden name signs, trailer-theme Christmas Cards and many other displays of interest to the mobile home resident are also in the display area.

LOST—AND FOUND FOUR RIDERS ON PALMS-PINES TREK

Lost and found—four riders on the Palms to Pines outing in the high desert.

Word was received here today from ride headquarters that four riders, led by Mickey Finn, yesterday afternoon had started following tracks of other horses in the vicinity of Yucca. The horses, although wild, were reported to have been shod misleading the group.

The Amboy area where they were lost could have been traveled for 100 miles without seeing a house.

The group, which also included Jack Mitchell of Santa Barbara Rancheros, was found about 2 a.m. this morning by other members of the party.

Eisenhower Returning to Washington

Deeply Grateful for Prayers, He Says on Departure

By MERRIMAN SMITH

United Press White House Writer

DENVER (UP)—President Eisenhower left Denver today "eternally grateful" for the message and prayers of people all over the world during his 48-day bout in the hospital here with a heart attack.

Mr. Eisenhower, standing on a cold, wind-swept airstrip at Lowry Air Force Base just before his plane took off for Washington, said he departed with "a full heart" of gratitude for the goodwishes and prayers during his illness.

MR. HOOVER SPOKE on behalf of President Eisenhower at Veterans Day services before the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery. He personally laid the presidential wreath on the gleaming marble tomb.

"We do not glorify war," he said. "No man came back from the furnace of war who does not pray that war be ended forever."

"On this day we renew our dedication to the eternal quest for the Holy Grail of lasting peace, not only for ourselves alone but for all mankind."

Winter Storms Take Toll of 10 in East, South

A wintry storm raged up the Eastern seaboard today and hit New England with lashing rains and four to eight inches of wet snow.

Another icy blast covered Wyoming and much of Colorado with fast-falling snow. Cold wave warnings were posted as far south as New Mexico and as far east as Illinois.

Another threat arose on the Gulf Coast, where the Weather Bureau issued small craft warnings from Brownsville, Tex., to Lake Charles, La.

Geneva Parley Ends Wednesday

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG

United Press Staff Correspondent

GENEVA (UP)—The Big Four foreign ministers decided today to end the bogged-down Geneva conference next Wednesday.

The agreement to end the talks was reached swiftly.

An official announcement said: "The ministers at their private meeting, having in mind their agreement in New York early last month that the conference should last about three weeks, agreed to organize their work here so that the conference could finish its work on Wednesday."

The last plenary session will be held on that day.

Agreement to end the talks three weeks after they started was reached on the initiative of the West, which wanted to avoid an open breach with Russia on the current deadlock over German unification, disarmament and East-West contacts, the three issues the ministers came here to discuss.

THE WEATHER'S double-barreled attack was already blamed for at least 10 deaths, plus snarled traffic and a rash of highway accidents.

At Plato, Minn., six teenagers were killed when a Milwaukee road mainline, speeding through the rain, smashed into their car. In North Carolina, a plane crashed during a snowstorm, killing three persons, and a duck hunter drowned in a storm-swept river.

FIVE INCHES of new snow were measured in the Montana, Wyoming, and Colorado highlands and temperatures were expected to plunge to zero levels in northern areas within the next 24 hours.

Meanwhile, a freak Indian summer heat wave finally ended in California.

The mercury went to 82 in San Francisco yesterday, breaking a record for the fourth straight day, but the weather bureau forecast cooler temperatures today. Even better, fresh sea breezes blew away a pall of eye-smarting, evil-smelling smog which had hung over the city.

Luz Flees on Warship as Revolt Wins

Air Force, Navy Take no Action to Resist Coup

By JOHN ALIUS

United Press Staff Correspondent

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (UP)—The Army seized control of Brazil today and Acting President Carlos Luz boarded a warship and sailed from Rio de Janeiro.

The first report of military action came when the Copacabana Fort at the mouth of Rio's harbor opened fire on the Brazilian cruiser Almirante Barroso and other units of the fleet outside the harbor without receiving return fire.

Luz, who took over earlier this week when President Joao Cafe Jr. took a leave of absence following a heart attack, boarded the heavy cruiser Tamandare at 10 a.m. The vessel put to sea immediately.

THE TAMANDARE is the former U.S.S. St. Louis, which was transferred to Brazil in 1951. Along with the Barroso, the former U.S.S. Philadelphia, it forms Brazil's "Almirante" class of 10,000-ton cruisers.

Luz messaged Flores Da Cunha, president of the Chamber of Deputies of the Brazilian Parliament, that he intended to retain his post as president.

The surprise departure of Luz came shortly after the army seized control of the country, and despite a pledge by the air force and navy that they would resist efforts to oust him from the presidency.

THE CRISIS in Brazilian affairs has been brewing since last month when Juscelino Kubitschek was elected president and Joao Goulart elected vice president.

Some army elements consider them to be the political heirs of the late President Getulio Vargas, who committed suicide in 1954 after a dispute with the military.

The dissident group of army colonels forced Vargas to dismiss Goulart as lower minister in 1954. This same group had indicated it might move to keep Kubitschek and Goulart from taking office.

Moss Says Law Needed to Curb Gov't Secrecy

WASHINGTON (UP)—Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.) said today there is "a clear need for legislation" to break down secrecy surrounding many non-security government operations.

Moss said his Government Operations Subcommittee, which is investigating alleged suppression of information, has shown the need for such legislation.

"There have been exaggerated claims of authority to withhold information based on a theory of 'inherent' powers stemming from the presidency," Moss said.

Lights Go Out When Power Co. Head Talks

HONOLULU (UP)—The lights went out at the Edgewater Hotel Thursday night when Walter L. Dolbear, vice president of the Virginia Electric & Power Co., was addressing the Pacific Coast Electrical Association's conference.

Dolbear finished his speech by flashlight.

Bomber Crashes Into Destroyer

SAN DIEGO (UP)—A low-flying naval attack bomber today crashed into the destroyer U.S.S. Hopewell of the Southern California coast during maneuvers.

A spokesman for the 11th Naval District said there were a number of other ships in the area to assist, if needed. He said there had been no reports received here as to the extent of damage or casualties, if any.

The propeller-driven plane was attached to the San Diego Naval Air Station and operated under the Air Forces of the Pacific Fleet.

Larry Finley, noted for his masterful presentations of radio and TV shows, has been chosen to report the exciting events which occur at the Silver Spur Ball Saturday night at The Desert Inn.

$25,000 Reward Posted for Clue in Plane Sabotage

DENVER (UP)—The search for signs of sabotage in the November 1 explosion crash of a United Airlines DC6B that killed 44 persons was intensified today after the posting of a $25,000 reward for information leading to the conviction of those responsible for the air tragedy.

Officials of United Air Lines made no mention of sabotage when they offered the reward yesterday, but UAL President W. A. Patterson said the "explosive which was aboard" the plane "was completely foreign to the aircraft or to the operations in the air line industry."

A REWARD OF $1000 had been offered earlier by the Flight Engineers International Association AFL, which has been on strike against United for three weeks.

The possibility that sabotage caused the huge plane to explode in mid-air and crash into a sugar beet field eight miles east of Longmont, Colo., was indicated by CAA Investigator James N. Peyton last Monday.

He said evidence of a "bomb type explosion" appeared in the remains of the rear belly cargo hold.

THE NEXT DAY the FBI, which had delayed active participation in the crash investigation until evidence of sabotage was discovered, was asked to join in the probe.

However, a source close to the airline said that federal authorities, so far as is known, have not found any clues pointing to anyone who might have planted a bomb on the plane.

Patterson said the airline was offering the reward with the hope it "will aid in producing information which will lead to the early solution of this air industry tragedy."

Find Wreckage of Yacht, Fate of 26 Unknown

PAGO PAGO (UP)—The wreckage of a yacht which had been missing for more than a month was found today hundreds of miles from its destination, but there was no indication of what happened to the 25 persons aboard.

The 60-foot converted yacht Joyita was found abandoned and damaged by an apparent explosion in the northern Fijis. It was half submerged and the portside superstructure had been blown away.

The Joyita departed Apia in British Samoa October 3 on a fishing expedition with cargo for the Tokelau Islands. It was believed to have encountered a violent storm shortly after leaving port and was the object of two unsuccessful big air-sea searches.

Actress' Battle Scene Raided by Burglar

NORTH HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Actor Donald Barry told police today that burglars broke into his home and made off with six wrist watches and three sports coats.

Barry's home was the scene of a scrap last week between actresses Susan Hayward and Jill Jarmyn.

BULLETIN—Seven persons were injured, none believed seriously, in a three car accident this afternoon at the Highway 111-99 underpass. They were brought to Desert Hospital for treatment. The accident occurred as a result of a strong wind blowing sand across the highway, obstructing the view of Olga Ferry, Los Angeles, who slowed the speed of her car. It was struck by a car driven by Earl Woodward, of Long Beach, whose car was in turn struck by one driven by Dr. Irwin Sobel of Los Angeles.

MRS. THELMA FAYE Dunn, 39, Banning, was fatally injured early this morning when the car she was driving overturned on Highway 111. The accident followed a family argument, according to the CHP. Her husband, Jack, suffered minor injuries.

Love-Crazed Student Who Killed Two Caught Today

VIROQUA, Wis., (UP)—Police arrested a love-crazed college freshman today who shot his sweetheart and her best friend in grief over a broken romance.

Vernon County Sheriff Morris Moon said Dennis Twing, 17, was picked up by Richard Center, Wis., police about 7:45 a.m. EST while hitchhiking toward Madison, Wis.

Kay Broderick, 15-year-old sweetheart of the youth, was in critical condition at Brenon Hospital with four bullet wounds. Her friend, Lynn Lawton, also 15, was shot the same number of times but was reported in "good" condition.

Moon said Twing opened fire on the two girls in Miss Broderick's home late yesterday when she returned his ring and told him she didn't want to see him any more.

Twing, a University of Wisconsin freshman, dashed from the Broderick home and ran through Viroqua, trying to flag down every car that passed.

The skinny, distraught youth apparently thumbed a ride out of Viroqua, Moon said, and a truck driver reported last night that he had seen the fugitive at Arena, Wis., 60 miles away.

13 Ships Seek Missing Airman

HONOLULU (UP)—Thirteen ships, assisted in the air by a lone Coast Guard plane, criss-crossed an area of the stormy Pacific Ocean early today in a search for the last of five crewmen who bailed out of a disabled C-119 flying box-car.

The missing man was Airman 2c Jerry C. Caywood of Cincinnati, Ohio. His four companions who jumped with him Wednesday night when the plane developed propeller trouble 650 miles northeast of Honolulu, were rescued.

The seaplane tender Floyds Bay left the scene last night with the four survivors.

Democrats Ask Maypole be Named as Delegate

Palm Springs Area Democratic Club has started a campaign to have its president, George M. Maypole, included in the California delegation to the national Democratic convention to be held in Chicago next summer.

In a resolution, the club pointed out that Maypole is a former state senator and lieutenant governor of Illinois, and would "be a valuable asset to the success of a California delegation" at the convention.

Particular attention was paid to interior decor in order to achieve the best in luxury living.

The opening of the hotel was celebrated with a cocktail party attended by many hotel owners, villagers and out-of-town friends of the Palas' from San Diego to San Francisco.

Foot-Weary Thief Solves Problem

The "case of the missing car" was solved shortly after it was discovered. Mike Puentes reported to police about 2 a.m. Friday that his 1951 Ford Victoria had been stolen from the corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue.

About a half hour later, the car was found by police near the Amado Cafe, about seven blocks from where Puentes discovered it missing.

They are seven long blocks for walking—or so the thief decided.

Continue Search for Missing Boy

EAST MEADOW, N. Y. (UP)—Scores of police poked through cellars, construction sites and wooded areas today in a continuing and re-tracing search for three-year-old Stephen Damman who disappeared from in front of a supermarket on Halloween afternoon.

Furniture Men Open 3-Day Meeting Today

Latest production techniques designed to make furniture more competitive and appealing than ever, will be among the topics discussed at the annual convention of the Furniture Manufacturers Association opening today in Palm Springs.

More than 200 members and guests associated with Southern California's $250,000,000-a-year furniture manufacturing industry are expected to gather at El Mirador hotel for the three-day conclave, ending Sunday, November 13, according to Jack Maserstein of Los Angeles, association president.

One of the principal speakers will be J. Edgar Kennedy, managing director of the Hardwood Dimension Manufacturers Association, Nashville, Tennessee. The University of California Forest Products Laboratory and its relationship with the furniture industry is to be discussed by the laboratory's director, Fred N. Dickinson of Berkeley.

Guests of honor at the group's banquet and installation of officers will be General Omar N. Bradley, famed World War II Army commander, and Mrs. Bradley.

Technical aspects of the state's furniture labeling laws will be covered in a talk by Roy Carter, chief of the California Bureau of Furniture and Bedding Inspection, Sacramento.

A two-part discussion of the "Survival Workshop" is to be led by C. C. Crawford, Ph.D., professor of education; University of Southern California, and Ernest L. Loen, head of the Los Angeles management consultants firm bearing his name. The group will also hear a talk on air pollution control by Robert L. Chass, chief, Evaluation and Planning Staff, Los Angeles County Air Pollution Control District.

Eddy S. Feldman, executive secretary for the association, announced that installation of officers for 1956 will highlight the Saturday evening banquet and a golf tournament Sunday at the Tamarisk Country Club, with General Bradley participating, will conclude the annual convention.

The praying mantis is said to be the only insect that can turn its head.

Stevenson Maps Plans to Make Himself Man to Beat

By RAYMOND LAHR
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (UP)—Adlai E. Stevenson is planning a series of steps next week designed to propel himself into the 1956 campaign as the man to beat for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The former Illinois governor and 1952 presidential nominee was an overnight guest here on his way to Charlottesville, Virginia, where he speaks tonight at the Woodrow Wilson centennial observance.

IT WAS INDICATED that Stevenson's bid for the 1956 nomination would be announced formally at Chicago next week in this progression:

1. A bare announcement Tuesday which will declare his candidacy for the nomination.

2. A news conference Wednesday at which he will be prepared to answer questions about his campaign organization and his thoughts about the state presidential primaries before the party nominating convention at Chicago next August.

3. A speech before the Democratic National Committee Saturday night, laying out his ideas on the issues for 1956.

STEVENSON ALREADY has recruited some members of his campaign organization. James Finnegan, Philadelphia Democratic leader, was reported to be a possible choice to manage his campaign.

His primary plans were understood to be uncertain except that it was considered a sure thing that he would enter the Minnesota primary March 20, probably without opposition.

Other presidential primaries under consideration were said to include Pennsylvania, Florida, Oregon and California.

The California and Oregon primaries now are regarded as the most likely spots for a collision between Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) who is expected to announce his candidacy in about three weeks. Kefauver plowed through state primaries in 1952 with great success but failed to win the nomination.

Spraying Cars to be Costly to Two Youths

Two 12-year-old grammar school students were taken into custody last night after they had sprayed nearly 10 cars with plastic decorating snow.

Sgt. Ted Greene said the boys had ridden double on a bicycle, and when they pedaled past parked cars behind Sula Lodge, 529 Arenas Road, and again at Estrella Villa, 415 South Belardo Road, they used a Christmas decorating bomb to spray obscene words.

Greene said most of the cars were Cadillacs. He said one of the boys was picked up, and with his mother, taken to view the damage by daylight.

The juvenile officer added that the youths are to report to him periodically. The boys' parents will have to pay for the cleaning jobs necessary to remove the snow.

Grace Kelly and Brando Named Best of 1954

NEW YORK (UP)—Marlon Brando and Grace Kelly were named today as the best dramatic actors and top money makers in the film industry for the 1954-55 season.

The annual poll by the Independent Film Journal also selected a new king of the horse operas—Audie Murphy. Kim Novak and Jack Lemmon topped the most promising new personalities list. The late James Dean placed second among the most promising new stars.

Walt Disney, an old veteran at walking off with Oscars and other top industry awards, was chosen the top money producer.

Babbage Named on Revision of Laws Committee

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Governor Goodwin J. Knight has announced the re-appointment of three Southern California members to the state Law Revision Committee.

The appointees were former Assemblyman Stanford C. Shaw, Ontario; attorney Joseph A. Ball, Long Beach and attorney John D. Babbage, Riverside.

Juveniles Blamed for School Break-in

Two separate break-ins at the Palm Springs High school were reported to police Thursday, one at the cafeteria and the second at the office.

Only items missing were at the cafeteria, where a small amount of money and ice cream bars were taken.

Juveniles are believed responsible for the break-ins, police said.

Council Thanks Reserves

City Council last night unanimously went on record as wanting to thank the reserve police department for the wonderful job they have done during the past 12 months.

Plans were made for the complete council to attend the annual dinner given by the City to honor the volunteer policemen.

Council also okayed the expenditure of $1,000 to be used to replace present uniforms, now six years old. The uniforms which the $1,000 will buy will consist of trousers and jackets only, Peterson said. The 28 reserve officers furnish their own caps, guns, boots and accessories.

The college was host to more than 300 students from 50 Southern California high schools. Webb, a senior, is majoring in botany.

Samson, Zappe Attend Meeting

Herbert Samson and Orvil F. Zappe, managers of the Palm Springs and Cathedral City offices of Citizens National Trust & Savings Bank of Riverside attended the California Bankers' Association annual Group 4 meeting held at the El Cortez Hotel in San Diego.

Two panel discussions were held at the southern California bankers meeting. One covered business development, and one examined the differing functions of bank boards of directors and national bank examiners and auditors.

Howard E. Shutt, of the bank's Main Office in Riverside, was one of the panel members, speaking on effective ways to combat the efforts of check forgers.

Installment Plan

WORCESTER, Mass. (UP) — One conscience-stricken citizen apparently is paying off his debt to the city of Worcester on the installment plan. The city manager received a dollar bill in the mail, with a note indicating it was conscience money. Two weeks later, another dollar bill arrived, accompanied by a similar note. The handwriting on the two notes was identical.

HIGH SCHOOL CHUMS HARDWARE store on Palm Canyon Drive across from DeMuth Park was conceived in idea form when Alan Ladd re-met contractor Bob Higgins, who built the home Mr. and Mrs. Ladd recently purchased here. After a

Higgins, Ladd Hardware Store to Fill Village Need

When the Alan Ladds bought their house at Las Palmas Estates in April, they contacted the builder to talk about an addition. They like his work, and wanted him to carry out the general theme.

The film star was pleasantly surprised to find the builder and he had been schoolmates at North Hollywood High.

THE BUILDER, Bob Higgins, had been in business in the Village seven years. They started drawing plans and buying materials for the addition.

The schoolmates got what they could in the Village, but there seemed to be a glaring need for a builder's hardware supply store. They had earlier talked of forming a partnership in the contracting business, but opportunity to supply builders and contractors seemed more of a necessity.

Three months after Mr. and Mrs. Ladd re-acquainted themselves with Higgins, plans for a modern, first class hardware store started into the blueprint stage.

BOTH PARTNERS were extremely busy, and they worked long hours even to get it going. Higgins had 14 homes under construction, and Ladd was producing, though not acting, in his Jaguar Productions film, "Cry in the Night," now halfway complete. The film starring Edmund O'Brien, Brian Donlevy and Natalie Wood, is Ladd's third independent venture with Warner Brothers.

But the long hours didn't hold back the time schedule, at all. They planned to open November 12, and they will. Ladd even asked for and received a delay in starting date of his starring picture, "Santiago," about the Cuban revolution, so he could be here for the opening of the hardware store across Palm Canyon Drive from DeMuth Park.

THEY LEASED the 5000 square foot building, and the 50 car parking lot next to it, on October 1, and have been living in organized pandemonium trying to get things situated. Even the five Villagers who are going to clerk the store seem to be always running. Though it seems like confusion, Higgins believes it's about par for the course in relation to other store openings.

Right in the middle of the scurrying, the Ladd's Hidden Valley 65-acre ranch in Ventura County took all their attention when Ladd received a report that a forest fire was within 200 yards of the ranch house. They had to speed there to see what could be done to protect it, and luckily they found the fire burning all around them, but not reaching them. Seems the hills form an up-draft that funnels the flames away.

THE FINAL DAY of haste is almost over, and things seem to be taking shape. As added sidelines, the Higgins-Ladd store will serve orange juice free and carry lines in gifts and toys for the Pre-Christmas shopping rush. Primarily, the meeting of the high school chums brought about a complete first class hardware store, and a chance for friends of a while ago to get together again.

$150 Raised at Benefit Dance

Benefit dance to aid the Crippled Children's Hospital at Desert Hot Springs raised more than $150 at Horizon Trailer Park.

Total donated by the crowd was $50, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Paquette, owners of the park, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Estex, managers, each matches the donation. Joseph Boyer, of Frenchy's, also donated to the fund.

Mrs. Dodd of Desert Hot Springs, chairman of the Hospital committee, was present at the dance.

Jones Boys and the Two Janes Finally Unscrambled

NEW YORK, (UP) — This is a story about the Jones boys and two job applicants, one a beautiful blonde pin-up girl, the other a plain Jane.

The Jones boys work in the RCA Victor offices. Bob Jones is art director there and Bud Jones is an accounting manager.

Bob needed a pretty girl to model for a record album cover. Bud needed a secretary. The blonde and the plain Jane were waiting for interviews. Finally the receptionist nodded to Jane.

"Mr. Jones will see you now," she said "second floor."

JANE, VERY DUMPY, very plain, went to the second floor. Art director Jones took a look and wondered "who did this to me." But, being a gentleman, he recovered and inquired:

"May I see your photographs?" "Photograph," Jane asked. "Of course," Bob Jones replied. "Nudes or bathing suit shots will do. You have to have a figure to work for us."

Jane fled screaming.

Meanwhile, back in the accounting department, Bud Jones, received the blonde pin-up girl.

"Oh, brother," he murmured rubbing his hands. "Have a seat, please. Now, have you had any experience?"

"OH, YES INDEED," the blonde purred.

"May I see your resume?" "Resume?"

"Yes, of course, your resume." The blonde figured that the word "resume" was a fancy word for leg art, she tossed her photos on accountant Jones' desk. There she was, in a few bits of leopard skin, again wrapped in cellophane, again simply in the altogether.

Bud Jones gurgled and turned green.

Everything turned out all right, however. Plain Jane didn't call police, the girls got switched around and so ended the story.

Dolls Top Guys at Coffee Hour at Ramon Park

At the "Guys and Dolls Coffee hour," at Ramon Trailer Park, the Dolls took over last week with an extravaganza that brought out the crowd. Hazel Schaezel and Helen King were in charge. That's been the gossip there ever since, and the Guys will have something to shoot at next week.

The seat of government of Ramon Park is moving this week to its new home in the large recreation hall that is nearing completion.

Nice things being done by some of the people there are: The landscaping at the entrance on Sunrise Way and around the Recreation Hall, by Hazel Goodrich and Helen King. The clever and artistic arrangement on Lot 203, by Lee and Evelyn Hammer.

One and Earl Huffman, more natives of the Park are arriving this or next week. New ideas in landscaping can be found at Lot 187, supervised by Mrs. Cahill. Hazel Day has sold over a hundred tickets to the Trailer Rally in the park.

The last available lot on the outer circle, No. 231, is now occupied by Harry and Ana Spencer with their new Spartan trailer. Dr. G. A. Ashbaugh of Riverton, Wyoming, is being entertained as a house guest by Nell and Clyde Fluke.

Sahara is Outstanding Example of Desert Parks

Trailer owners visiting Palm Springs for the convention which started today and will continue through Sunday, will have an opportunity to see an example of modernism in organization and planning if they visit the year-and-a-half-old Sahara Park at the south end of the Village.

In July, 1954, two men started planning the Sahara Park. It was desert then. Now there are 135 lots 50-75 by 64 feet square, and mile after mile of paved street.

THERE IS A swimming pool, a dance floor, a snack bar, television theater, and dining room in a central area for the Park's residents. Now, according to G. M. Blezard, president of Sahara Park, there are about 300 persons who attend the functions.

Blezard and Roy E. Smith, vice president, started the park, and after the project got under way, they took three more partners into the corporation.

Most of the residents are retired business and professional men from everywhere in the country.

Forty more spaces are being added to the original 135, and Blezard said they will continue to build spaces for trailers till they reach their goal of 300.

The $11,500 paid by residents includes almost everything in the way of carefree living, Blezard said. Besides the dancing twice a week, there will be a dinner for all residents, also twice a week.

As with the shuffleboard, the radio and television rooms, the reading rooms, the dinner and dancing are free to residents.

A NOMINAL RENTAL and county taxes are paid by trailer owners.

ers, and that is all their expense.

Now that the park is enlarging, Blezard and Smith still take an active hand in the development, but have relegated the operational functions to Bill Veith. Veith, former Indian Agent in the Village, started to work as manager of Sahara Park in March.

Now that the season is starting more and more mobile home residents from all around the country are rolling into the sun's Winter home. Any who stay at Sahara Park will find it a brand new idea in convenience, sociability and hospitality in trailer parks.

"Only if I can get two together," he said.

Los Compadres Club to Honor Presidents

Dinner dance in honor of Cliff Campbell, immediate past president, and all past presidents, will be held by Los Compadres at the club house Sunday night, starting at 7 p.m.

Perry Sanders, newly installed president, will preside over the party.

Light scattered against molecules of water relatively free of suspended or dissolved materials gives oceans their blue color.

trailer publications staffs will be found in the Sun King Press Cabana.

Officials of many trailer clubs, trailer manufacturers' associations and trailer park associations will attend. Public officials, too, have been invited.

The rally is sponsored by 19 of the Palm Springs Area Trailer Parks, comprising most all the parks in Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert and Indian Wells. In this area there are accommodations for 3000 trailers and over 6000 six to eight months residents of the area.

RAY FORBES, publicity chairman of the 1955 rally and one of its originators, says that the annual Rallies have done much to bring about the full occupancy of local trailer parks.

"Before the Rallies," says Forbes, "I can recall that many parks had many vacancies at this time of year. Now, even though there have been new parks added, trailer parking space is at a premium before the season is well under way."

A larger attendance of vacation trailer clubs than ever before is predicted for the 1955 Trailer Rally. The vacation trailer group represents more substantial citizens than average as has been noted by Stanford Research Institute in recent surveys. They report "Fifty percent of vacation trailer owners have an average income above $7,000 per year and enjoy 50 days of trailer travel each year."

Legal Secretary Group to Meet at Oasis Hotel

The Riverside County Association will host the third quarterly state board meeting of Legal Secretaries, Inc., to be held at Palm Springs, Saturday and Sunday at the Oasis Hotel. Registration opens at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday with the first business session commencing at 10 a.m.

President Jean Hecker of the Los Angeles association will preside at all business sessions, assisted by Vice-President Margaret Wolff, Kathryn Wright, executive secretary; Margaret Avila, treasurer, and Josephine W. Conway, parliamentarian.

A banquet will follow Saturday's business session, which will convene on Sunday at 9 a.m.

The California Association of Legal Secretaries, Inc. now has a membership of 33 clubs throughout California, and was founded upon the ideals of service to legal secretaries, attorneys, the courts and the general public, and numbers several hundred members throughout the state.

An invitation is extended to BARE SET AND ITS DESIGNER. Lee Krikorian, won't be seen this way Friday and Saturday night at the American Legion Auditorium, Belardo Road. The set will be full of actors for the very busy "You Can't Take It With You." Lee, who used to

Palms to Pines Riders to Parade Through Village

Eighty horseback riders, members of the Palms to Pines Riders Club, left Whitewater fish hatchery Wednesday morning on the first of four 25-mile legs on their 100 mile trek over the Little Morongo and back to El Mirador Hotel.

Wednesday night the riders, on their 17th annual journey, stopped overnight at Mission creek. The men came from everywhere in the United States to join the event.

They rode over to Morongo Valley last night, and camped at Covington Flat. This morning the group went over the Little Morongo and headed for Pioneer Town. From Pioneer Town, they will head for the B-Bar-H Ranch, and Saturday morning early they will head for the Village and their last stop at the Ranch Club's corral.

Before they finish at the Ranch Club, though, they will parade through town, right down Palm Canyon Drive. Tomorrow night Frank Bogert, of El Mirador, will open the South Pacific Room for them. A ride's end banquet will be held.

This is the second time the same route has been taken, after receiving favorable comment from the riders following last year's trip. Among the riders are Beryl Berry, Kansas City, and Charles Lee, San Francisco.

PlayerStage to Present Two Benefit Performances

Lee Krikorian, who with Martin Beck is co-producing the PlayerStage presentation of "You Can't Take It With You," showing tonight and Saturday at the American Legion Auditorium on Belardo Road, not only is acting in the play, but designed the set and did most of the carpentry work. Lee and Marty started PlayerStage with an amateur group of Villagers last year.

The work was quite a switch for the 29-year-old Lee, who was raised in Pasadena.

WHEN HE FIRST came to Palm Springs four years ago, he was a member of the headline act at Chi Chi called the Jimmy Ford Four. Lee and the group were given leave of absence during their engagement by Irving Schuman so they could take advantage of an offer by Abbott and Costello, who spotted them from the Chi Chi audience, to play on their television show.

The musical foursome had to go to New York to be on the show. They came back to the Village to finish their engagement, and two weeks later saw themselves on the kinescoped Colgate Comedy Hour with the Hollywood slapstick team.

THEY MOVED ON to Honolulu, and then Laguna Beach. Lee quit the group when he married a Redlands girl and settled down to raise a family—his wife is expecting their second heir the end of next month.

Marty, who is married to Lee's sister and is staff announcer at KPAL, talked over the idea of starting PlayerStage a couple of years ago with Lee.

They worked together on their first show, just as they have each successive one. At the first the going was a little rough. But as in the presentation of "You Can't Take It With You," their audiences have been getting better and better.

THE PRESENT PLAY opened a month ago, and they played eight performances to a moderately filled house. By the eighth performance, they not only packed the auditorium, but had offers to take the show to Desert Hot Springs for a pair of performances for the new Angel-View Crippled Children's Hospital, and then to play a public benefit under the sponsorship of the Parents' Guild of the Nellie Coffman School.

More than 500 persons saw the Desert Hot Springs performances, and Lee and Marty expect 700 tomorrow and Saturday nights. They said they advanced certain time for the school-sponsored showing, so children brought to see the farcical comedy can get to bed early. The curtain is set to rise at 8 p.m. both nights.

U. of R. Symphony Orchestra Has Many Professionals

The University of Redlands Community Symphony Orchestra, now entering its sixth year, represents a unique service to the participants and audiences of the entire Inland California Empire, according to Edward C. Tritt, founder-conductor of the group, in reviewing the growth of the ensemble.

From a membership of 40 instrumentalists in 1950, the orchestra now numbers 89. Twenty-three are students living on campus and 66 are off campus non-students representing 12 communities with a 65-mile radius.

The former University orchestra was composed entirely of university students and confined to daytime concerts, usually as a part of the regular Convocation program. Realizing its limitations, Professor Tritt re-organized the ensemble and enlarged its scope of experience and service by inviting qualified instrumentalists from surrounding communities to join forces with the university musicians in forming the University-Community Symphony Orchestra.

"We have members who formerly were associated with the Boston Symphony, Rochester, Philharmonic, Minneapolis Symphony, and Hollywood Studios, to name only a few, and the entire personnel finds mutual reward in sharing good symphonic literature. Playing with professionals adds much to the technical experience of the university students."

Members of the orchestra include two Palm Springs boys, Carl P. Groth, son of the Maynard Groths, and Gary Hammond, son of Alex and Wynne Hammond, and John and Marjorie Staples of Indio.

Playhouse Wire Repair Approved

In an effort to speed existing electric wiring repair at the Playhouse while construction of the dressing rooms is underway, City Council Wednesday night passed unanimously a motion to allow City Manager Robert Peterson to act at his discretion and gave him the necessary $800 needed to complete the project.

Peterson told Council last night that existing wiring at the playhouse should be repaired as the new construction is going on. He added that it may be necessary for the City Engineering Department and the Department of Public Works to install wiring in order to keep in time with the building.

If such is the case, Peterson will transfer the funds into the city employees' salary pool.

He said he will have time only to conduct informal bidding. Ground was broken Wednesday for the structure.

All Trailer Parks in this area are holding Open House this weekend and cordially invite you visit them during your stay here.

DeLuxé Lounge Features Two Unusual Tables

Two terrazo coffee tables, the work of Miss Virginia Weerts, a sculptor of San Diego, have been added to the lounge of the Happy Spaces Club at DeLuxé Trailer Park.

When "face lifting" was started on the recreation hall last Summer, the Cromwell brothers, manager Dave, Frank and Dr. Lincoln, decided it should have a real name, Happy Spaces Club. At the same time Miss Weerts took on the job of designing and executing the tables especially for the lounge, and it was decided that the design for the table tops, though abstract, would depict all manner of happy faces.

THERE WAS MUCH excitement when the big 10-foot table, handsome but heavy, (it took 8 men to lift it) was moved in. Set before the fireplace, it is flanked by two inviting lounges with seats for 18. The smaller table, five foot, stands before the corner lounge which seats another eight.

Altogether functional, the tables are free form for the spaces they fill. The big one is strong enough to be used as a seat for fire-huggers, and its expanse can accommodate not just coffee service, but an adequate buffet for fire-side parties.

BUT FUNCTIONALITY is tied with art in these tables which Miss Weerts took on as an extra project in her Spanish Village studio where she is very busy with classes in sculpture commissions.

The colors in both table tops, which are based in wrought iron, range through the warm numbers, rich browns, with grays in several shadings, and rose. The rosy rocks, with modulating grays and umbers, furnish the background color. Burnished brass outlines the design and black gives accent.

MISS WEERTS, who has been a frequent visitor to Happy Spaces since her trailer was parked here last Spring, is a member of the Allied Craftsmen of San Diego. She studied for three years at the famed Clay Club in New York, and was a pupil of the internationally known sculptor, Donald Hord for four years.

Miss Weerts has promised to do some teaching at Happy Spaces Club next year. Besides sculpture she will show those interested just how to make a terrazo table for themselves, or to sell, for sales-minded craftsmen.

SPACIOUS AREA is indicated above in the bedroom of the new 15 foot wide Trailorama on display at Al Rose, the Trailer King's display area at Horizon Trailer Village and at the Trailer Rally at the Polo Grounds. The Trailer Rally starts today and continues through Sunday.

Al Rose Continues to Set Pace for Trailer Designs

Al Rose the Trailer King, who seemingly seems to be just one step ahead of competition in his field, came up with a new one recently to result in a new first for Palm Springs in trailer homes.

"I have a trailer," he enthusiastically proclaimed, "that is 13 feet wide and legal too."

And then he went on to explain: "IT'S THE NEW Trailorama, the wide, wide trailer that expands itself in 60 seconds at the flick of a switch and permits a trailer home area only 27 feet in length but nevertheless equals the living area of a 47 foot trailer."

It was pointed out that Trailorama while in movement across state highways folds up to legal width limits but when placed in a trailer space doubles in size.

IT CAN BE INSPECTED at Al Rose's lot at the Horizon Trailer park and will be on display at the Trailer Rally during the four day exposition of trailer homes now under way at the Polo Grounds.

Specifications of the Trailorama include: all weather fiber glass blanket insulation, vapor barriers, certified house type wiring, doubly fused at multibreaker and weatherproof plumbing certified to housing code specification.

IT'S DELUXE interior appointments and accessories include a functional coffee table, decorator draw drapes in living room and bedroom, inlaid linoleum in dinette and bathroom, 5-piece dinette set, deep twin sinks, canopy with exhaust fan over stove, roomy wardrobes and floor to ceiling storage.

Among a host of many other desirable features there are a large bathtub and shower, wall-to-wall carpeting, full size Hollywood bed, fluorescent and conventional lighting. It is furnished with Frigidaire refrigerator, deluxe four burner stove with oven window, automatic water heater.

"IT TRULY IS the only fully engineered trailer in the world," Rose declared. "It is built to meet rigid standards set by the Trailer Coach Association and to withstand heavy road travel."

British Trailer to be at Rally

An English made trailer will have special display at the Palm Springs Trailer Rally. Although not for sale this 22 foot London Caravan trailer will prove of great interest to those who may wonder how an English made trailer compares with American production.

Modern and conventional in design, visitors will be impressed with the oak panelling interior finish and the leaded windows not seen in American trailers.

This trailer is the property of Don Bussey of Laguna Beach and is displayed for the interest of the Rally visitors.

He also mentioned that terms may be made to suit the finances of any one's budget.

"Don't forget that we also have on display other trailers too," concluded Al Rose.

Trailers Used in Atomic Test to be Featured

Atomic Test Trailers will be furnished for view of Rally visitors by Kit Manufacturing Co. and Airstream Trailers, Inc. These trailers were subjected to the Las Vegas Atomic Blast tests of civilian housing early last Summer.

Visitors will be amazed to see with their own eyes how well these mobile homes withstood effects of the blast while standing at 10,000 feet from the point of explosion. Some ten trailers were offered to the Civil Defense Authorities for the blast test and all were in livable condition within the few hours it took to reduce radio activity to a point of safety.

The Kit and Airstream trailers to be on display were actually in the blast area and one may see the slight damage they suffered.

Barbecue Party Held at DeLuxé

One hundred and twenty-five guests were entertained pool-side with a Barbecue party Saturday night at Beckleys. Mother Nature added her touch to the decor, a full harvest moon shining through the date palms onto the sparkling pool.

Six expert barbecue masters served the dinner, finished off with fresh, plump dates from the Beckley's own grove. Dancing and an aquatic show were on the program for the evening.

Pot Luck Supper to be Held Nov 17

Horizon Trailer Village on Highway 111 will hold another pot luck supper at 6 p.m., Thursday, November 17. The first was very successful, with all tenants attending.

Mobile Homes Are as Much America as Series, Hot Dog

"The Mobile Home Industry is as much a part of the American scene as the World Series — hot dogs — and television commercials. Today there is no crisis to stimulate sales — no wars — no national emergencies, and yet the industry continues to grow by leaps and bounds."

These were statements made at the recent New England Clambake at New London, Connecticut, by Robert Sedlak, president of the Mobile Homes Manufacturers' Association. As the principal speaker, Sedlak said:

"Years ago the Mobile Home Industry had a slogan I am sure you will all remember — it went something like this — 'A Rolling Home is a Stepping Stone to a Permanent Home.' It was a good slogan for the time. We were a new industry. We didn't know what was going to happen next from one month to another. We didn't want to get any one mad at us — principally the real estate interests, zoning boards, etc. We had an inferiority complex then about our product. People called us 'emergency housing' and many of us believed it."

"But," continued Sedlak, "today there are no crises. There is no war. There is no housing shortage. There are no floods. This year—1955—our industry will make and sell more than 100,000 units, a 31 percent increase over 1954, a $400 million year, the biggest in our 25 year history."

"We are a very permanent part of our American economy and a lot more important than a great many industries we've always thought as 'giants,' we're bigger than we ever dreamed we could possibly become."

Sedlak, in explanation, quoted the following facts:

One out of every eleven single family housing starts will be a mobile home, 9 percent of the total. Prefabricated Housing in 1955 will produce 88,000 units; this industry will produce 100,000 units. Mobile Home dollar volume in 1955 will exceed any two of the following industries: toothpaste, vitamins, vacuum cleaners, pet foods or home radios.

Photograph Village for French TV

Palm Springs scenes were photographed Wednesday and will be shown in France on television. Here to supervise the picture taking were Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Sabbat. She is the niece of Opera Star Lily Pons and said that Palm Springs is well known in Paris. The pictures were taken by Guy Bourquignon, of Tela-Luxembourg. He photographed many Village scenes, including a pan shot made from the terrace of the Nate Miller home on the hillside, above Palm Springs. Other shots were made of Palm Canyon, the O'Donnell golf course and Lily Pons hilltop home. The French television crew is photographing 24 of the 15-minute shows throughout the United States. They particularly complimented the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce for the splendid cooperation they received here.

Designer Turns Dog's Life into Mink-Lined Luxury

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, AP — More people should lead a dog's life. Especially that of a city slicker mutt.

These pampered pooches go to finishing school to learn their sidewalk manners, have their own beauty shops for cutting, curling and pawdicuring, gnaw only on bones from prime cuts of beef, and even have their own clothes designers to keep them on dogdom's best-dressed list.

One such designer is Dorothy Dorn, who spends her days with dogs and her evenings with musical drama.

A native of Australia and now a United States citizen, Miss Dorn became a designer because she needed money to help underwrite her dramatic and voice studies.

Opera Singer
Through friends, she met the wife of one of the executives at Hammacher Schlemmer and heard of an opening in the dog apparel department. She has been there since.

A coloratura, Miss Dorn also is a member of the Amato Opera company in Greenwich Village.

"Well, the two jobs do have a connection," Miss Dorn laughed. "Some owners declare their dogs can sing."

Her newest fashions for fido range from a felt walking coat for daytime wear to a mink-trimmed velvet evening wrap and rhinestone earrings for dress-up occasions.

She said earrings are a "first," although for years she and other designers have jeweled dog collars and other apparel.

The earrings are circlets which fit at the base of the mutt's ears and are held on by clips. If the owner — or the dog — doesn't like the earrings, they can be used like a bow as decoration for the dog's topknot. This treatment works best with French poodles who have top-knots.

$7 to $75
Miss Dorn also has designed a black tuxedo; worn with notched white tie; a gold lame evening coat; a brocade coat with brimmed hat, decorated with beads and pearls; and a vivid red taffeta coat.

Those present were Mmes. Harry Estel, Mike Gordon, Byron McKee, Carl Jackson, Carl Mayfield, Sam Farmer and Ruby Hammer. The latter is a new resident who recently moved here from Banning.

with jeweled embroidery on a full, standaway collar.

The dog fashions cost anywhere from $7 for the earrings to $75 for the lame coat.

Lots of red in Miss Dorn's canine costumes.

"All dogs love red," she said. "They don't like navy blue or violet."

Through her years of dealing with pooches and people, she has reached some interesting conclusions about both.

She said a dog's personality usually reflects that of his owner.

"A neurotic woman invariably owns a neurotic dog," she said. "Some owners drive their dogs nuts."

She has decided other owners lavish every luxury on their pets for the same reason some men buy their wives mink coats.

"It's to show the world how prosperous they are."

Others pamper their dog because it is the only member of the household who takes affection and gives it in return.

"Which," she said, "is more than you can say for some husbands. . . or wives."

The broiler and burners of a gas stove come clean easily if immersed in a pan of hot water to which you have added 2 tablespoons of sal soda concentrated. Boil for a few minutes.

Mrs. N. Ellis of Beverly Hills is visiting here at the home of her son, Bill Ellis at 1085 Driftwood.

Mrs. F. V. Shannon of 1041 South Sunrise Way, has been vacationing in Laguna Beach where she was a guest at the Laguna Shores.

FRUIT CAKE TIME

NEW YORK (UP)—It is not too soon to start planning holiday fruit cakes. The best ones are those that have plenty of time to age and ripen before the holidays. Add a few of the ingredients to each week's grocery list, and you'll hardly notice the cost of this annual treat.

Pie crust is flakier if the top is brushed lightly with cold water just before the pie goes in the oven.

Redlands Concert Will Feature Vienna Chorus

The Vienna Academy Chorus, internationally known choral group, will be featured in the second of the University of Redlands Concert Series, when it sings in the Memorial Chapel on Tuesday, November 29.

In the few short years since its inception, this remarkable chorus of 24 superb voices has been acclaimed throughout Europe, in England and Scandinavia, and won great renown at the Edinburgh and Salzburg Festivals.

The twelve female and twelve male members of the Chorus are all vocally and instrumentally trained graduates of the great Vienna Academy of Music, and are thus prepared to offer a most varied and exciting evening of music from many periods and for every taste. For their Redlands appearance, these young artists have assembled from their unusually extensive repertoire, a program divided into three parts. Part I consists of works from the great choral literature of the world, sung in modern evening dress. Part II, a collection of Austrian folk-songs and even yodeling songs, with the company dressed in costumes of the Tyrol and Part III, typical Viennese music by Schubert and Strauss performed in old Viennese attire, round out the program.

Tickets for this concert may be reserved by calling the Concert Series Office, University of Redlands, 3-2121. The price range is from $1.20 to $3.60.

CRANBERRY RELISH VARIATION

CHICAGO— (UP) Here's a new version of cranberry relish. Take 3 cups of fresh cranberries, 16 preserved kumquats, 6 tablespoons of green gage jam and 4 pieces (1/2 ounce) crystallized ginger finely diced. Put cranberries and kumquats through a food chopper on the coarse blade. Add ginger and jam, mixing until jam is thoroughly blended. Chill and serve.

University Women Hear Exchange Students Talk

Two exchange students from the University of Redlands provided the program when the A.A.U.W. met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. L. D. Owens on Cactus Drive.

Leena Sorvari of Helsinki, Finland, and Sue King of Redlands, who attended school in Finland, discussed education differences between the two countries. Elaine Buttred, program chairman, engaged them in an interesting discussion.

The program was followed by a brief business session, followed by a social hour in which refreshments were served by Laurel Long, hostess chairman, and her committee.

Dancing Party Fetes Birthday

Sidney Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Sanders, celebrated his 12th birthday recently by inviting thirty of his classmates and neighborhood friends for an evening of dancing at his parents' home.

The party began at five in the afternoon in the patio that was gaily decorated. Piles of sandwiches and refreshments greeted the guests. Before 9 o'clock that night a bright birthday cake and the singing of "Happy birthday" was the cue for a happy close to a gay evening.

PUMPKIN PIE TIME

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

A typical Palm Springs weekend is coming up . . . with brunches, cocktail parties, fashion luncheons . . . a benefit dinner dance and a ball . . . on the social calendar . . . All this in addition to the usual Saturday and Sunday night dinner dances and buffets at the private Clubs . . . and the many activities scheduled for visiting conventioners . . . Palm Springs has never been busier or gayer . . . A former Villager . . . here for last weekend . . . walked the length of Palm Canyon Drive and said she could scarcely believe the changes that had been made . . . since last Winter . . . She's right . . . You have to see it to believe it . . .

Evelyn Schiff entertained a small group at cocktails Tuesday evening . . . honoring Vic Damone and his wife Pier Angeli . . . Vic will open an engagement at the Coconut Grove on November 23 . . . and Pier was a little sorrowful because it looks like she may have to go to London to make a picture . . . If she does, Vic will take the baby and his nurse, and join her abroad when he concludes his Ambassador engagement . . .

The baby, who was named Perry for his godfather Perry Como, now weighs 15 pounds . . . Mama Pier was looking marvellous . . . in a red gown and jewelled red sandals . . .

Along with the possible trip to London . . . the conversation kept getting continental . . . Vic told me his recipe for making pizza . . . which I think he would just as soon do as sing . . . Pier told Bud Graves that when she carried one of his wonderful handbag creations . . . people stopped her on the streets of Paris to admire it . . . Evelyn, herself, was wearing a Venetian skirt she brought back this Summer . . . It is pale green and decorated with ears of corn . . . Part of it is embroidered . . . but the kernels themselves are real corn . . .

Other guests at the intimate little party were the Burnham Bigelows, Co. Thorntons . . . Bud and Vic Graves, and Mrs. Harry Jenkinson of Los Angeles, who is a houseguest of Mrs. Schiff's . . . Sydney Schiff called from New York during the evening . . . and said that he expects to arrive here on Monday . . .

Mrs. Hortense Murray has as her houseguests . . . Count and Countess Eugene Lukawicki of Vienna . . . The American-born Countess is the former Lee Walbridge . . .

Dolly Marcuse was expected to arrive in Palm Springs yesterday . . . from Chicago . . .

Admired Nina Anderton . . . drinking milk while the rest of us had champagne . . . at a small cocktail party at the beautiful new Chateau V Tuesday evening . . . Nina is down to personally make arrangements for the Silver Spurs Ball . . . which she is doing single-handed in her usual capable fashion . . . This evening she will be hostess to a large group of her Los Angeles friends at a dinner in Chi Chi Starlite Room . . .

Hosting the party, Georges Stoicesco (former Romanian ambassador to Japan) was his most courtly self . . . Former Metropolitan Opera Star Stella Roman was there with her husband Frank Vitale . . . and another interesting guest was Lou Sawyer . . . who with her husband Cliff, has been re-decorating Nina Anderton's Flagg on the Beach restaurant on Roosevelt highway . . . They are known as the "scintillating Sawyers" . . . and are specialists in tropical design . . . In Palm Springs, where they have a home, they have done the Chi Chi . . . the South Pacific Room at El Mirador, the Doll House and the Beachcomer dress shops . . .

Among other guests were the Edmund Rieders of San Francisco's Sheraton-Palace . . . He, of course, was here for the hotel convention . . . and Vidella Vigini, owner-manager of Chateau V . . .

Alma (Mrs. Frank) Morgan, who has just opened her Rancho Mirage home . . . has as her houseguests . . . Elise Casse of Niagara, New York . . . The two are life-long friends and went to school together in New York and in Europe . . . Mrs. Morgan has invited her old friends here to meet her guest . . . at a big cocktail-buffet on November 19 . . . Among her party guests will be Col. and Mrs. Theodore Cartwright of El Cajon.

Dorothy Gray Brown is due back from New York . . . in time for the Waldo style show luncheon which she will stage tomorrow at Chi Chi . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waldron honored their daughter Mary Jane, with a large party on her eleventh birthday. Thirty classmates of Mary Jane were on hand to help her celebrate.

The party began at seven and the outdoor patio was arranged for dancing which highlighted the evening. Mrs. Waldron created enthusiasm in the group with prizes for the best Bop dancers through the evening. Chaperones at the gathering were Karen Hanson, Barbara Rech, and Joan and Pat Waldron.

Refreshments and birthday cake were served later in the evening.

PALM SPRINGS

Style Show Luncheon Tomorrow

The fashion show luncheon which will be one of the highlights of the Nina Anderton Foundation Three Days of Fun in the Sun will be held tomorrow (Saturday) noon in the Starlite Room at the Chi Chi . . .

It will present Waldo originals and fur creations from Teitelbaum, modeled by professional models, and commented by Elizabeth Merry. Elizabeth Merry, a textile designer with Fuller Fabrics, also commented the Hotel convention show luncheon at the Tennis Club on Monday.

Waldo is bringing down his smart new line of Cruise and Holiday Wear for the showing.

Teitelbaum, who is opening a shop at Desert Inn, will present stoles and capes and other furs especially designed for resort wear. An interesting feature will be the inter-changeable fur collar and cuff sets for cardigans.

Dorothy Gray, Inc. will present the Waldo styles, and Dorothy Gray Brown will hostess a table at the luncheon. With her will be her producer husband, Harry Joe Brown; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Silverman; Mrs. Lester Selig and her houseguest Edith Luce (New York fashion designer); Mrs. Alexander Marcuse; Mrs. Elsinore Machris Gilliland; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Silverman and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Morris (he is the music publisher and they bought the Alice Guthrie house here).

Dr. and Mrs. Morton Efron of Westwood were guests for the past week at the Pepper Tree Inn. While here they called on old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Calmy.

Organ Concert Follows Dinner

A brilliant organ concert played by "Bill" Irwin, following a dinner party Mr. and Mrs. Davis gave Monday resulted in a thrilling evening for those present. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Alden Coffin and Mr. and Mrs. George Hope of Youngstown, Ohio.

"Bill" Irwin and his wife Mary were houseguests of the Davises. Since their return to Los Angeles, where Mr. Irwin conducts a music studio, he has opened an engagement at the Colonial House in Inglewood. The renowned organist appeared at the Saddle and Sirlion last season.

Doodles

By ROGER PRICE

MEMO FROM A PARAKEET

This Doodle was sent in by Mary and Laurence Conroy, of Hollywood, and was inspired by a memo written by E. J. Parakeet, a Theatrical Booking Agent who used to handle nothing but birds. At one time he managed a Canary who did a Soft Claw Dance, a Trio of Turkeys who sang Shake-Gobble-and-Roll songs and a Parrot who did an imitation of Marlon Brando. He did fine until the Finance Co.

THE YOUTH MOVEMENT that the Pittsburgh Pirates introduced several years ago under Branch Rickey's five-year plan failed, but the Bucs are still going for it.

Ready for the 1956 campaign, another which will be directed at getting the club out of the cellar, are two additions to the youth movement, General Manager Joe L. Brown, son of the screen comic, and manager Bobby Bragan, a 37-year-old ex-major leaguer who has had considerable success as a minor league manager.

What they can do remains to be seen, but without ball players, it appears their task still is a major one.

THE RICKEY farm system, which paid off so well with the Cards and the Dodgers, apparently hasn't worked yet at Pittsburgh since Branch, now out after his five-year plan, didn't come up with a winner. In fact, he didn't even come up with a contender.

How the club attempted to do it with youth can be seen with a comparison of the Pirates' roster in 1951 and the one that went to camp last Spring.

Only TWO players, Bob Friend and Vern Law, pitchers, still were on the roster of 47 players which went to the Bucs' camp last March. And yet, the Pirates finished in the same spot, last.

It's true that new blood in any organization, at least some new blood, can do wonders with business and operation. But the Pirates' story still is the same, and it's one of player personnel.

BROWN is highly-considered in baseball as an intelligent front-office man. What he does will be watched with close interest for the Bucs have got to come up with something pretty soon. Several of the young players on the squad have good possibilities for the future but there has to be some trading or buying done to get solid talent to go along with it.

Bragan, the new field manager, is an outskout baseball man, who played major league ball as a routine journeyman but has done well as a manager in minor league and in the Winter baseball circuit.

He should put some new life in the Bucs bench activities but he still will have to have some players to make a good showing. For one thing, he won't have to worry about going down, for in the Bucs picture there's only one way and it's up.

RICKEY suffered losses in his planning through the service calls. At one time it was estimated the Bucs had 175 of their young players in the service.

Certainly Rickey proved, over the years, he could build teams. His Pittsburgh venture came at a time when other clubs were screaming about the lack of good ball players in the majors, and those that had, kept them.

It will be interesting to watch what the young and new blood in directing Pittsburgh affairs can do for the club in 1956. At least the picture should improve. It can't get any worse than it's been.

Costa Looking for Crown Shot

NEW YORK —Chunky, baby-faced Carmelo Costa of Brooklyn may clinch a featherweight title shot tonight if he wins impressively over lightweight contender Joey Lopez of Sacramento, California, in their return TV-radio 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Costa, fourth-ranking feather contender, won a unanimous decision over Lopez, eight-rated lightweight aspirant, at the Garden on March 18. But each scaled only 130 pounds, which was the contracted maximum for that bout.

However, the contracted maximum for tonight's scrap is 136 pounds. Lopez, a full-fledged lightweight, claims he was weakened by paring down to 130 in March and that he will have more stamina and more kick in his punches tonight.

Gail Cave Winner in Senior Tournament

Comes Back in Final Day to Take Prize

Cards 76 in Play at Thunderbird to Recapture Lead

Gail Cave, of the Wilshire Country Club, regained his first day lead in the Desert Senior Golf Association's November tournament yesterday at Thunderbird Country Club with a 76 to give him the best low gross score of 223 and the Gene Mann Trophy signifying him as grand champion of the tourney.

Cave, who shot a 69 the first day at O'Donnell Golf Club, had the lead taken away from him the second day, at Tamarisk Country Club by Bill Taverner of Annandale Golf Club. Cave's second day card read 78, giving him a mid-way total of 147. Taverner shot a 72 at O'Donnell and 73 at Tamarisk to grab the lead from Cave at 145 before yesterday's 18 holes at Thunderbird.

Taverner finished one stroke behind Cave in the wind-up round. He was leading by one stroke into the ninth, but a ball out-of-bounds cost him a two stroke penalty, and he was never able to make it up.

Behind Cave's 223 and Taverner's 224, Jim Montgomery, of Oakmont CC, fired a 227 for third. Defending champion Carl Hammond, who won the inaugural Palm Springs Desert Senior Tournament last February, withdrew after the Tamarisk round.

In the age-group play, handicap scores were recorded according to the five different age levels. Besides the Senior golfing, a special President's Flight, for invited golfers who have not yet reached the minimum 55-year-old boundary, was shot along with the Senior play.

Results of age group low gross and low net are as follows:

CLASS AA—Jack Ballinger (Seattle), 259; Chase Garfield (Palm Springs), 278. Low net—Fred Barrows (LACC), 225; Dad French (Palm Springs), 225. CLASS A—S. D. Cochran, 248; W. R. Miller (LACC), 263. Low net—L. E. Russell (La Jolla), 221; Roy Miller (San Diego), 222. CLASS B—D. B. Sox-Dodgers First

Two American Horses Favored in International

LAUREL, Md (UP)—Two American horses are expected to go postward as the betting favorites in the world famous Washington, D. C. International Handicap today despite a rain-softened course that figured to help the foreign entrants.

A field of 13, largest in the four-year history of the $65,000 classic, is slated to start in the mile-and-a-half contest that now is better known throughout the world than perhaps any other U. S. race.

THE CREAM of Washington's international set, including the ambassadors of many of the six foreign nations represented in the race, was expected to watch the

RC Senior Net Play Under Way

The Racquet Club second annual Senior Tennis Tournament started today with 30 entries set for three days of men's singles and doubles. Singles play started at noon, and doubles will be played tomorrow and Sunday. Victory on an elimination system will be scored on a best two-out-of-three sets basis.

Some of the players featured are ranked high in the national Seniors seeding roster. Six of the top 20 national, and eight of the best Southern California ranked seniors are set to compete.

There will be two divisions in doubles; the championship group, and the Class A. There will be eight doubles team in each classification, and 24 players in the one-division single competition.

As an extra, eight mixed double matches will be played when some Seniors team with local ladies. Mousie Powell and Dinah Shore are among the distaff netters who will provide the added feature.

The Seniors, who must be older than 44 to be eligible, will be out to defeat defending champion Ed Woodall, singles, and Van Zerbe and John Sisson, doubles.

Besides Woodall, who is ranked number 1, some of the other seedings include Sisson, Carl Busch, and Lewis Bond, in the singles rank, and Sisson-Alan Harrington, 1; Joe Ciano-Zerbe, 2, in the doubles.

Racquet Club owner Charlie Farrell will team with Gus Kettman, Palm Springs police chief, to uphold the honor of the Village.

MORRISON ON GOLF

Star Amateur May Turn Pro

Patty Berg, leading money winner among women pros, was tied by Gloria Fecht, California Amateur Champion in an Open Tournament at the Clock C. C. Both players turned in sub-par totals of 288 for four rounds.

By ALEX J. MORRISON
Author of "A New Way to Better Golf," Teacher of Champions

WHEN TRYING to tell you recently about the Women's Open tournament at the Clock C. C., near Whittier, Calif., I was stuck with a couple of items that worried me. My report was incomplete because the tournament was not over. Also my comments did not include mention of that something which, in my opinion, would greatly benefit the women's open tournaments.

As you probably read in your newspaper, the tournament ended with Patty Berg, the pro, being tied by the California amateur champion, Gloria Fecht.

Starting the last round Miss Fecht was two strokes behind Patty, but brilliant putting and the holing of a 75-yard approach

Campbell Forced to Cancel Trials

LAS VEGAS — Winds of 20 to 30 miles an hour whipped across Lake Mead today forcing British boat race driver Don Campbell to postpone his record-smashing attempt until next Monday.

The speedboat ace had tentatively scheduled another attempt for earlier today to break his own world record in the jet-propelled Bluebird II following four tries on Lake Mead yesterday.

JVs Wind Up Season with 7-6 Victory

Miles and Lewis Team Up to Put on Winning Score

Palm Springs Papooses, the high school's junior varsity football team, wrapped up a tight one point edge victory when they beat Beaumont's jayvees last night, 7-6, in the Pass city to finish their season with a 3-2 winners slate.

The Papooses' Coach, Al Kazmier, saw his youngsters go into the second quarter on the shady side of a 6-0 scoreboard, and then jumped upright from the bench in the Beaumont stadium, along with 500 other fans, as Palm Springs tailback Robert Miles whipped around left end and gathered speed for a 57 sprint to the end zone and 6 points.

WITH AN EVEN SCORE, Joe Lewis placed a kick smack in the middle between the goalposts, and the local lads took a 7-6 lead which they kept till the last gun.

In the second period, several drives by both teams were stopped short of their marks by excellent defensive work.

At one time, the Cougar javees held the ball on the Papoose one-foot line with four downs to make the tally, but a fumble cost them their chance. Papoose Joe Lewis the extra point maker, grabbed the ball and ran 52 yards before being dragged down by a tackler who came from behind him.

The last two quarters, scoreless for both teams, saw many near scores, and many long gains pulled back for penalty payment. The local javees may wait till next year to play, now that their season is wound up. Most will be on Clare Ballagh's Indian varsity next season, some this season.

Gary Tobian Heads Show at Biltmore

Gary Tobian, 1955 national platform diving champion and member of the U.S. Pan American Olympic Team, will headline a swim show at Sam Levin's Palm Springs Biltmore Hotel tomorrow at 2 p.m.

Other famed swimmers who will participate in the aquatic presentation will include Ann Cooper, Mack Brown, Gail Benton, Irene MacDonald, Marley Shriner, Susie Bishop, Judy Primrose and Joanne Nothbar.

Featured attraction will be a water ballet, followed by Wes Hammond, who bills himself as the "Clown Prince of the Springboard."

Hammond was with the Billy Rose San Francisco aquacade, and has since been in movies and on television.

According to Nita Martan, of the Biltmore, Levin has issued an invitation to the public to attend the show free.

SMARTLY designed all-wool parade uniforms to be worn by U. S. teams at the Winter Olympics at Cortina D'Ampezzo, Italy, are modeled above. The uniforms will be worn by both men and women athletes. The uniforms feature a hooded white wool fleece duffer coat with red and blue trim. (International)

Indians Meet Beaumont in Quest of Third Straight

The Palm Springs Indians, seeking their third straight victory, tonight journey to Beaumont for a Riverside County League game with the last place Beaumont Cougars. Kick-off time is 8 p.m., with the Indians playing the role of favorites.

Coach Clare Ballagh has spent much of the time in this week's practice sessions working on the Palm Springs pass defense which was noticeably weak in their last tussle against Perris. Other than this, Ballagh's big problem was keeping a case of over-confidence from setting in on his charges.

The Indian's offense will again be led by their shifty tailback, Mickey Pellum, who has been

Seal Franchise Put Up for Sale After PCC Forfeit

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UP) — The franchise of the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League was up for sale today after having been forfeited by league directors at their annual meeting here.

The directors announced yesterday they would operate the club next year unless a new buyer was found before then.

Claire Goodwin, PCL president, said the league would not sell the Seals' franchise for less than $90,000 and accumulated indebtedness. The club is $200,000 in debt and the buyer would have to assume that debt.

JOSEPH CAIRNES, executive vice president of the Milwaukee Braves of the National League, said he had discussed the possible purchase of the Seals with PCL directors "but there was no meeting of minds and we made no offer."

Mayor Fred Hume addressed the directors at a luncheon celebration and promised Vancouver would do its best to make the city a strong member of the Coast League. The Oakland franchise was recently transferred to the Canadian city. Ford Frick, commissioner of

TCU in Hula Bowl

COLLEGE STATION, Tx. (UP) — Hugh Pitts, Texas Christian center and co-captain, has accepted a bid to play in the Hula Bowl football game in Hawaii, January 8. Bids for other post-season games have been received by other Frog seniors but all are tentative pending the outcome of the hot Southwest Conference race.
